

Imperial Brown® Walk-in Coolers is a leader in temperature management facilities for food service, biotechnology, medical and building construction industries, with three locations in the U.S. – Portland, OR; Prague, OK, and Salisbury, NC. Miller Davis, working with this international manufacturer for 10 years, has helped merge the three companies into a concise, effective marketing machine with new looks for brochures, the website, social media and trade shows.

